SPORTS COMEDY, 86 MIN

A 30-year-old underdog fights to win the love of his dream girl by defeating her douchey, professional-disc-golf-playing boyfriend.

Inspired by the classic hit films Dodgeball and Happy Gilmore, THE KIWI is a goofy comedy that speaks to anyone who has underachieved in life and wants to be a hero! A light-hearted, humorous story rooted in fun characters, with a classic Good Guy vs Bad Guy scenario that everyone can cheer for and laugh along with.

Warren "Kiwi" Jones is a burned-out park maintenance worker who has squandered his potential, smoking weed and drinking just to get through every day. Then one day Kiwi runs into his dream girl and his heart and soul are ignited! Of course, Kiwi flubs his introduction - but all is not lost.

His dream girl plays disc golf and Kiwi has a hookup to get into the game.

WATCH THE TRAILER

THE KIWI is the second feature from writer/director Wayne Winterstein, who teamed with Paul Pettigrew and Scott Bell to produce and finance the project, with everyone taking on many crew roles throughout production (except cinematography and writing the catchy score).

Previously Wayne wrote and directed The Last Trip, available on Amazon. Paul has written and directed the short film The Road and the Sky and created an animated web series and children's picture book entitled The Sports Pals. Scott has won recognition for several screenplays, most recently Doughboy, created the 12-episode YouTube series Celebzzstuff, and has worked in video production for over 20 years.
